OPERATION WOLF HUNTER NETS ADDITIONAL ARREST

A Niceville man has been arrested in connection with a joint undercover cybersex sting operation initiated last October.

27-year old John Bryan Hood of 8 Corbin Court is charged with using a computer to solicit a minor and obscene communication to a minor via computer.

Hood was taken into custody yesterday at his home.

During "Operation Wolf Hunter", the Okaloosa County Sheriff's Office along with the North Florida Internet Crimes against Children Task Force conducted an undercover operation. Law enforcement personnel used online websites to make contact with individuals wanting to have sexual encounters with juveniles.

During the Operation, Hood made contact with two undercover investigators who identified themselves as juvenile females online. Hood, using a fake name, stated he wanted to have sex with them and sent them explicit pictures on different days.

Hood is a registered sex offender following an arrest by the Pensacola Police Department in January 27th, 2014 for traveling to meet a minor for sex.

Hood did not follow through with travel to meet the undercover officer, saying he felt it was a set-up.

However investigators continued to work the case and were able to identify Hood as the individual involved.
